Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Chief, Intelligence School

DATE: 25 November 1958

FROM : Chief, Orientation Faculty, IS

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #46, 18 - 25 November 1958

1. Intelligence Orientation

a. Intelligence Orientation #26 is now in its second week which is devoted to Collection, Dissemination, Support and Covert Operations. The students have been attentive and alert in their seminars and review session, and have adapted good naturedly to the crowded conditions in the classroom.

b. [] has taken over the DD/P lecture formerly given by []

c. Twice in the past two weeks the public address system in Room 2241 has gone out of order during a lecture. We hope to have the Audio Aids branch install a more satisfactory system before the next IO class begins.

2. Exhibits

Because of the heavy demands from both inside and outside the Agency, we are planning to present both the Intelligence Products and the Support Exhibit in January, 1959 although the IO will not be returning to the auditorium until February. [] has made arrangements with [] for the use of the auditorium on two days when the JOT's will be meeting in small seminar groups. The Support Exhibit will be held on Tuesday, 13 January and the Intelligence Products Exhibit on Wednesday, 14 January. We plan to invite the Strategic Intelligence School and the NSA to the latter exhibit.

4. Film Preview

25X1

[] attended a preview of a film entitled "The One Who Got Away," dealing with evasion and escape techniques. Although too long and specialized for the IO, he felt it might have a place in one of the Operations courses.

5. Personnel Notes

welcome addition to our staff. At present he is auditing the IO course which he finds completely revised since attending a previous edition some time ago.

25X1

b. [] attended a lecture on "Cultural Factors in the Development of the Underdeveloped Countries" at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces on 25 November.

25X1

c. [] was on sick leave Friday, 21 November.
